Sub:-Regarding action against BSNLEU officer bearers at JPR who misbehaved with executives.

Respected Sir,

In continuation of letter dated 3.10.07 on above subject, I have to request you that the police action against the defaulting officer bearers of BSNLEU JPR branch is in progress, but same action against the officials at fault has not yet been taken by management which in causing lot of unrest amongst the executives working at Jodhpur.

- 1- The official who have been placed under suspension there head quarter may kindly be changed immediately to avoid any misshape by these disgusted official.
- 2- It has been proved beyond doubt that the BSNLEU office bearers are misusing the union office and are creating problems to the executives hence the office of BSNLEU may be shifted to GM Office.
- 3- The security of Sardarpura Exchange may be strengthened with a view to deal with any such incident in the future

I hope that an immediate action on above issues will be taken, which will go a long way to boost the moral of the executives and also the sincere staff working in exchange and will discourage such and office decorum activities of such unscrupulous officials.

With regards

Yours Sincerely
